Miss Alumni

CHERYL BROOKS AKUMA

Fellow Alumni, Ram Family, Friends, and Supporters:

The journey of my reign as Miss Alumni 2007 has reached a plateau to its end. However, I will never depart from the foundation of its purpose, along with the commitment that is intended.

Winston-Salem State University, oh I am so glad to be a product of such a great institution. I hold it in the highest esteem and extend my gratitude for how we as alumni offer our support and recognition.

This triumph from beginning to end has brought so many new faces and experiences to my life. During my encounters both with alumni and non-alumni, I have expressed the significance behind this journey. It is more than being a queen...the true honor is given to students and the university through the love we have to provide scholarships and educational support.

During my reign, I was eager in seeking avenues of monetary and educational support from colleagues, friends and alumni. I have initiated the collaboration between colleagues and the WSSU administration on a proposed project relating to Mathematics Instruction in Elementary Schools in North Carolina. I have also seen the need to expand our alumni chapter database by initiating the organization of a new chapter to include Central New Jersey, Pennsylvania and Delaware. These are just a few ways that contributions to our university could be made. There are so many ways that we can make a contribution.

While the campaigns for Mr. and Miss Alumni will continue each year, this is one of the greatest ways you can make a contribution. Please remember that the benefit can only be as high as you help make it to be. Let us continue to give back and remember the road we traveled...someone helped us to get to where we are today, and feel good that now you have the opportunity to help someone else, and yes, they too, will be in our same shoes one day.

Lastly, this is a very important election year. Our future means of monetary and educational support will be greatly impacted by the elected President, administrative staff and officials. Please be smart and let your voice be heard. It is not just a privilege, it is your right. We must protect our children's future. Do not let your goals become less attainable by someone else's decision.

Miss Alumni - 2008...I encourage you to follow your heart, take risks if necessary, and stand up for the university that prepared you to serve when you departed. I pass this torch on to you as a link that will continue to burn for we, alumni, are together with you in unity and will serve together with a purpose towards giving back to Winston-Salem State University.

Thank you.

Cheryl Brooks Akuma - '77
Miss Alumni - 2007

Linked together in unity.

Mr. Alumni CLYDE A. CAUDLE, JR.

To My Ram Family:

I have thoroughly enjoyed representing you as an Ambassador of our illustrious alma mater, Winston-Salem State University. As the very first Mr. Alumni, I have and will continue to support and serve WSSU. I had the opportunity to meet Ram family members from different generations and we shared how Winston-Salem State impacted our lives. There was an immediate connection just as many of you have experienced when meeting fellow rams. I have been able to share my wisdom and creative ideas to further advance the university. As I stated before I am in it not to just talk about it, but to do something about it!

I look forward to moving on to the next level of service with the university. Even though this is a farewell as Mr. Alumni 2007-2008, this is just the beginning of what you will see coming from Clyde Caudle! I love Winston-Salem State University and I plan to continue to show my love through my ideas, time, service and finances.

Thank you once again for allowing me to represent you and Winston-Salem
State University.

Love,
Clyde A Caudle, Jr.

MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT:

Our Association seeks to engage all alumni and Ram supporters. As a membership organization, we must continue to focus on growing our financial membership base.

We continue to cultivate areas yielding new chapters along with revitalizing dormant ones. We are committed to making our Association the best and will not settle for anything less. Renew your membership and recruit a new member today! (www.wssunaa.org)

It is said that this election represents a defining moment in our country's history. The decision we make in November and over the next few years will shape a generation, if not a century. It is a powerful reminder of the debt we all owe to those who marched for us and fought for us and stood up on our behalf; of the sacrifices that were made for us by those we never knew. If we are serious about reclaiming the dream, we must do more in our lives, and our communities. Our work is not over. Take up the fight for opportunity and equality for all. Make sure you are registered to vote and vote for Change in November.

Thank you for your support and I welcome your ideas and input in moving our Association forward. Continue to make a difference and stay involved.

Mecklenburg Park and Recreation

Jacqueline Pittman Cureton '73 sincerely thanks everyone who supported her candidacy for the 2008-2009 Miss Alumni contest. Your in-kind donations are greatly appreciated.

DURHAM

The Durham Chapter's 2008-2010 Officers:

Mr. Christopher Walker - President
Ms. Siobahn Day - Vice President
Ms. Leslie Johnson - Treasurer
Ms. LeAnne Camp - Recording Secretary
Ms. Kimberly Sherrill – Corres Secy

Christopher Walker and Kimberly Sherrill participated in the Fall UNC-TV Festival in February with Mr. Arthur Hardin and the WSSU students.

In April, the Chapter sponsored a "Yard Sale" to raise money for the Durham Chapter Scholarship Fund.

Dr. "Chico" Caldwell visited the Durham Chapter in May to discuss "MARCH TO THE MEAC".

The chapter is proud to award our 2008-09 scholarship to Mr. Trimaime Sligh, who is a freshman at WSSU.

The chapter ended the fiscal year with a "Red & White Mixer". Our guest was Mr. Gregory Hairston, WSSU Director of Alumni Relations, and the Raleigh-Wake Chapter. There were 35 "RAMS" ranging from the Class of 2008 to the Class of 1958.

Deborah Waddell Jackson '81 was selected to serve as an Ambassador to the Paralympic Academy and traveled to Beijing, China, September 4-11. Ten people were selected from across the United States and Deborah was fortunate to land one of these slots. As an ambassador, she accompanied 25 challenged youth between the ages of 12 and 18 years of age.

NEW JERSEY

New Jersey Chapter hosted a spectacular luncheon honoring the extraordinary service of Cecil B. Cates '79 on Sunday, June 29, at the Hilton Newark Airport Hotel. Cecil served as president for the alumni chapter for six years. During his tenure as president, the chapter raised approximately $100,000 for WSSU and the WSSU National Alumni Association. During the luncheon, the chapter presented its annual scholarship to Jaia Johnson-Walker, a graduate of Columbia High School, Maplewood, New Jersey and an incoming freshman at WSSU. Mozelle Evans-Williams '65 was the luncheon chairperson.

In June, Robert Rawls '80 was honored at the NAACP Annual Freedom Awards Dinner. He received the Public Safety Award for his contributions to his profession and community.

Newly elected president Robert Rawls also recently completed a fellowship in Senior Executives in State and Local Government program at Harvard University in Cambridge, Mass. He studied at the John F. Kennedy School of Government under world-class professors and classmates that are elite public managers from around the world.

Robert is Director of the City of New Brunswick, New Jersey Fire Department.

PITT COUNTY

The Pitt County Chapter kicked off its upcoming year with its annual Back To School Cookout. New and returning students and their families along with area alumni gathered at the home of Chapter President, Patti Sanders-Smith for an afternoon of Ramtastic Food, Fellowship and Fun.

According to the information received from the Admissions Office, Pitt County has 35 new and returning students to Winston-Salem State this fall. There has been a significant increase in the number of students choosing Winston-Salem State from the Pitt County area. Many students attribute this to the quality of the programs at WSSU as well as the beautiful campus. The Pitt County Chapter has been instrumental in bringing WSSU to the Pitt County area through its participation in college fairs, hosting recruitment receptions and sponsoring trips to WSSU. The chapter is busy making plans for the Winter Board Meeting, which will be held in Greenville, January 16 and 17. The Pitt County Rams will host a reception for Dr. Donald Reaves on Friday night and An Evening With the Rams Soiree on Saturday, which will include Old School Jazz, featuring Dr. Carroll Deshield's Trio from 8:00 until 10:00 and a New School After Party from 10:00 p.m. – 1:00 a.m. at the City Hotel and Bistro, the host hotel for the Winter Board Meeting. This will be a scholarship fundraiser-- the tickets are $20 person and $35 a couple in advance and $25 per person at the door. Please plan to spend an extra night in Greenville and enjoy the marvelous time we are planning for all of our out of town Rams.

The Pitt County Chapter meets the fourth Wednesday of the month at Sheppard Memorial Library at 6:30 p.m. From more information contact Chapter President Patti Sanders-Smith @ 252.355.1003.

RALEIGH-WAKE

Raleigh-Wake installed the following new officers on May 17, 2008:
President – Elijah Jay Haddock
Vice-President – Charletta Sims-Evans
Treasurer – Takeeta Tyson
Assistant Treasurer – Monica Money
Secretary – Luther Johnson
Assistant Secretary – Daisie Blue
Assistant Treasurer – Monica Money
Parliamentarian – Ron Haynes

The chapter is seeking new members; it meets on the 3rd Sunday each month at 3:00 pm at the Lions Park Community Center in Raleigh. Feel free to visit our website www.raleighwakewssu.org for additional information on our activities.

Recent activities include:

♦Awarded a $1000.00 scholarship to Kirby DeShawn Kirby.

♦During our end-of-year celebration at Chavis Park, we presented outgoing chapter president Stanley Harding with a plaque recognizing him for his outstanding leadership and service.

♦Upcoming activities include: Plan to sponsor a bus trip for high school students to the WSSU fall open house.

♦Planning a "RAMS' Nite Out" during the televised RAMS vs FAMU game.

RICHMOND METRO

Trent '79 and Shelby Curry held a cookout at their home on June 21 for the future Rams and incoming freshmen who were planning to attend WSSU in August. Area alumni were in attendance giving out encouragement. Shelby, an honorary member of the chapter, gave out scholarship information, which she had put together. Thanks to their neighbors who donated their special culinary treats for this occasion.

ROCKY MOUNT

The five scholarship recipients who were awarded $500 each are: Asia Sierra White, Bryanna McDonald, Courtney Johnson, Dominique Jerido, and Jasmine Glass. Some members of our local chapter spent the summer assisting some of the recipients as they prepared for college life. The chapter is now working on recruiting students for the Fall Open House.

We meet the 2nd Wednesday of each month at 6:00 p.m. at Braswell Memorial Library in Rocky Mount.

VANCE COUNTY

The Vance County chapter gave a $250 scholarship to entering freshman Crystal Harris of Creedmoor, North Carolina.

Our primary focus this fiscal year is to increase the chapter's membership. Alumni that reside in Warren, Vance, Granville, and Franklin counties are encouraged to contact Antoinette Ball, 1515 Lynne Ave., Henderson, NC 27536.

WASHINGTON, DC METRO

The Washington, DC/ Metro Chapter meets the second Saturday of each month, excluding December, June, July, and August. Meetings are held at The First Baptist Church of Deanwood, 1008 45th St. NE, Washington, DC.

A Denim and Diamond Affair was held on May 30 in support of the Miss Alumni Campaign. Annual Chapter Cookout was held June 7.

On August 9, Sean Bellamy coordinated and directed a Little Mr. & Miss Ram Pageant.

A $500 scholarship was awarded to Cory Graves for 2008-09.

The chapter and Carolyn Closs Walford, the Eastern Region's 2008 Miss Alumni candidate, hosted a successful Jazz Luncheon on August 22 at Andrews Air Force Base in Camp Springs, MD. The chapter rendered homage to Cheryl Akuma, the reigning Miss Alumni, and former Eastern Region Miss Alumni Queens. This was also one of many activities aimed at raising funds for the ongoing Miss Alumni campaign, which ultimately benefit Winston-Salem State University scholarships. The event included a fur fashion show sponsored by Adriana Furs, jewelry by Lia Sophia and alumna Benita Bazemore, and the music of Lori Williams and Friends.

The event culminated with drawings for a region wide raffle with prizes of $200, $100, and $50 and door prizes.

For additional chapter information email bufordmc@acninc.net or call 301-957-4639

EASTERN REGION

The Advisory Board of the Eastern Region will hold its annual meeting in Washington, DC the second week of October 2008. Additional information will be sent in a few weeks.

IN MEMORIAM

Walter "Butch" Gurley, class of 1964, of Hampton, VA, passed away August 10, 2008.

He was employed as a teacher at C. Vernon Spratley Middle School until his retirement in July 2008. He had 43 years of service with Hampton City Schools and was dedicated to his students.

HAVE YOU SEEN OUR SISTERS?

Rose James Lockhart

In 1969, on the campus of Winston Salem State University, 12 dynamic bold sisters made history and stepped out with faith and determination and founded Swing Phi Swing Social Fellowship, Inc.® The organization spawned chapters from the East Coast to the West Coast and is still growing at a phenomenal rate. Founders of that organization, which is the sister organization to the Groove Phi Groove SFI®, were Jeanette Butler, Anita Chase (Watson), Beverly Dorn (Steele), Finessa Dunovant (Walker), Jane Harris, Rosalind Marshall (Tandy), Marilyn Reid (Hill), Patricia Story, Ellen Tomlinson (Carter), Brenda Travers (Satterfield), Lorraine Watkins (Phillips) and Talma Woods.

Most of the founders have been active members of the organization throughout the years; with the exception of Jeanette Butler, Jane Harris, and Patricia Story and Talma Woods. Many attempts have been made to locate these remaining four sisters. The sisterhood of Swing Phi Swing® anxiously wants to locate their missing founding members. If anyone has any idea how to contact any of these sisters please contact Founder Ellen Tomlinson Carter at either 2710 Kilkare Avenue, Winston-Salem, NC 27105, 336-575-2380 or 336 210-2621; or our National President, Tanya McCoy Sutton, at 919-931-2704.

Swing Phi Swing® will be celebrating its 40th anniversary on April 1-5, in Winston-Salem, NC—the birthplace of the organization. We want every founding member present and accounted for during our celebration, especially for Founders' Day on April 4, 2009. In addition, the organization has also planned an added bonus celebration of our 40 years existence with a Bahamas Cruise July 16-20, 2009. Information on the cruise is available upon request.

UNsung HERO WEEKEND

Bethel Burton

Hundreds of excited participants gathered for the black-tie gala celebrating Unsung Heroes in the Raleigh-Durham community and recipients of the Clarence 'Big House' Gaines award on June 20. This event honored the memory of the legendary basketball coach in addition to numerous other honorees who continue to do good work. Dr. Charles Nelms, Chancellor of North Carolina Central University, welcomed attendees, and Dr. Donald J. Reaves, Chancellor of Winston-Salem State University presented trophies to the honorees.

The gala recognized men and women who have gone the extra mile in their personal achievements, while at the same time empowered and encouraged young people to become accomplished and skilled leaders -- following their example. The 2008 Unsung Heroes included: Vivienne Brown Conley of Winston-Salem, NC; Donald Cureton of Charlotte, NC; Tim Grant of Winston-Salem, NC; Carl Green of New York; Mary Wells Harley of Maryland; De Valdean Penn of Winston-Salem, NC; Monté Ross of Delaware, and George Williams of Raleigh, NC.

The four Clarence 'Big House' Gaines award recipients from the Raleigh-Durham area included: Julius Chambers, former Chancellor of North Carolina Central University (NCCU) and Director of the Civil Rights Institute at the University of North Carolina, received the Public Service award; Dr. LeRoy Walker, Sr., also former Chancellor of NCCU and international Track and Field Coach, received the Education award; Anthony "Tony" Duke, founding family of Duke University and founder of Boys & Girls Harbor, received the Corporate award; and Mrs. Clara B. Gaines, wife of the late Coach Gaines received the distinguished Lady of Honor award in recognition of her lifelong commitment and dedication to service in her family, community and volunteer activities in the Winston-Salem and greater Triad region.

Entertainment was provided by "Mixed Water," a jazz ensemble of Shaw University musicians.
